

ARNOLD HEIDSIECK SCHOLARSHIPS

Call for Applications 2018

The Arnold Heidsieck Scholarship Fund offers several scholarships for one or two semesters at a university in the U.S. The program invites applications from BA-students in the humanities who are currently enrolled at a German university and have a focus on German literature, language, history and culture. The scholarships provide monthly grants of up to USD 550 and travel allowances of up to USD 1,100.

Deadline for applications: 5 April 2018
for a stipend starting in August or September 2018

For further information please contact:
ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius, Dr. Anna Hofmann Feldbrunnenstraße 56, 20148 Hamburg, Germany, Email: hofmann@zeit-stiftung.de

www.zeit-stiftung.de/heidsieck

Arnold Heidsieck (1937–2009), philosopher and German philologist, taught as a professor at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles. Born in Leipzig and raised in Breslau, Heidsieck studied theology in Tübingen and wrote his doctoral dissertation in literary studies at the Freie Universität Berlin. His research initially centered on Kafka and his intellectual contemporaries; his later work focused on German post-war literature and representations of the Holocaust.

The ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius supports the development of civil society. The independent charity aims to promote scholarship, enrich the cultural heritage, and develop social competencies. The activities of the foundation are centered on research and scholarship, art and culture as well as education and training. Her flagship projects are the Bucerius Law School in Hamburg, founded in 2000, and the Bucerius Kunst Forum, which opened in 2002 in the heart of the Hanseatic city.
www.zeit-stiftung.de

The American Friends of Bucerius was established in 2006 as an independent charitable organization in the U.S. to develop and support the programs of the ZEIT-Stiftung Ebelin und Gerd Bucerius.
www.buceriususa.org

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF BUCERIUS

