Up for taking part in an experiment on language?

Are you keen to
- earn 10€ in 45 minutes by speaking some English and pressing a few keys?
- learn more about what happens in your mind when you speak a foreign language?

Then participate in my study!

Experiment on task difficulty in English

WHAT IT INVOLVES
- Pressing keys in response to a display on a screen
- Speaking in English for short stretches of time and answering a few questions
- Short placement test + brief questionnaire
- Being audio-recorded for analysis
- Coming to Genscherallee 3 (U-Bahn Heussallee) for about 45 mins. in early to mid May 2018

WHAT’S IN IT FOR YOU
- 10€ cash in hand
- Some sweets + eternal gratitude
- The fun of an experiment + learning something new

REQUIREMENTS
You must be a native speaker of German, speak English as a second language, be between 18 and 29 and be a third-year student at the IAAK.

If you would like to participate, please select a time slot in this Doodle: https://doodle.com/poll/dn47h7fxntzgf3nz. Fill in your name and, IMPORTANTLY(!), your contact email address (won't be shown publicly) and I will send you the details. If you have difficulties with Doodle, just send me an email and tell me when you’d like to attend.

All data will remain confidential. Any questions, don't hesitate to email me.

Many thanks for your help!
Friederike Sell
(f.sell@uni-bonn.de)