

The Department of English, American and Celtic Studies needs artists!

Dearest Students,

As the Writing Competition is such an immense pleasure and your writing is so brilliant, we would like to publish past and future Writing Competition winning pieces in a little journal. For that journal we would like to commission artists from our department. The theme of our 2022 journal will be “HOPE” and there are no restrictions apart from that.

We need an artwork for the title page, which would be awarded a 30€ book voucher (and you would need to add the title of the journal + the date), and up to seven (!) artworks for within the journal (10€ book voucher). As creating art is a lot of work, we encourage you to hand in drafts as a PDF/JPG to dmoroney@uni-bonn.de via your uni-email account by midnight May 30!

We'll celebrate the winners on June 17, 2022, 4pm and the journal will be published shortly after, which is why you should be able to finish your piece of art by the end of June / early July.

You can win book vouchers ranging from 30€ (title page design) to 10€ (artwork in the journal).

We are looking forward to your submissions!

Marthe-Siobhán Hecke (she/her) & David Moroney (he/him)
