Cambridge – Bonn Proofreading Cooperation (BA students)

GEFÖRDERT IM DAAD-LEKTORENPROGRAMM

Dear Students,

We are pleased to announce the second “Proofreading Partnership” with the Faculty of Modern and Medieval Languages and Linguistics, University of Cambridge. This allows you to find a Cambridge University proofreading partner who will help you with your English and whom you can help with their German – for private purposes only.

If you are BA student and would like to join as a German native speaker and English Studies student, we will allot you a native English speaker studying German with whom you can cooperate in terms of proofreading. You could help Cambridge students with their German CV or covering letter and they could help you with your CV, job applications, (non-university) texts etc. It is up to you how often you cooperate, to what extent (once, twice?), and through what medium (WhatsApp, zoom, e-mail). You might even find some friends along the way? 😊

Please be aware that you are not allowed to let Cambridge-students proofread or work on your texts for university (term papers, writing assignments) as this might interfere with your ‘Declaration of Authenticity’.

If you are interested, please contact Marthe by October 15, 2022: mshecke@uni-bonn.de

Best wishes

Marthe-Siobhán Hecke (IAAK, Bonn) & Theresa Lentfort (DAAD Lektorin at Cambridge)
