

If Life Was A Sweater

If life was a sweater

I think I got it two sizes too big

It's itchy, it's scratchy

The sleeves are too long

It's inside out and upside down

And even with turning it isn't quite right

Can I return it, where do I go?

Will I ever grow into this thing?

If life was a sweater

I think it hangs around my knees

Makes me stumble, makes me fall

'till I face plant in every situation I find

I had big hopes for my sweater but I feel like

The world made me humble

When life gives you lemons, ask for salt and tequila

When life gives you struggles with growing up,...ask for salt and tequila?

If life was a sweater I don't think it fits
