

beautiful brain

beautiful brain
nothing as loyal
hands me ideas
makes life worthwhile

beautiful brain
mirrors don't show it
my heart often does
a reflection of me

leads my way
paves it with thoughts
never stands still

beautiful brain
changes so much
hears my frustration
plasters its walls with it

beautiful brain
stretch it thin
drain its colours
mock its size

beautiful brain
now so quiet
gives me grayness
does not answer

beautiful brain
try to heal it
gift it brightness
long way ahead

beautiful brain
I am sorry
we'll do better
just you wait

beautiful brain
this is my promise
